

City Guides x Emilie Meinadier Consulting

Paris Fashion Week Bulletin

Fall 2019

Eat & Drink

Laperouse

CLASSIC FRENCH

The historic Parisian restaurant – an elegant Left Bank haunt since the Belle-Epoque – is now in the hands of the ambitious Moma Group (Manko, Froufrou...). In the kitchen, Michelin-starred chef Jean-Pierre Vigato (ex-Apicus) and champion patissier Christophe Michalak have devised the menu with elegance & brio.

51 quai des Grands Augustins, 75006 | 01 43 26 68 04 | laperouse.com

Terminus Nord

CLASSIC FRENCH

Facing the Gare du Nord since 1925, the legendary Art Deco brasserie unveils its new decor signed by the specialist of the genre, John Whelan (Bouillon Julien...). Wood, leather, zinc, and a vast menu of brasserie classics, from French onion soup to pan-fried calf's liver, and not forgetting their famous shellfish platters!

23 rue de Dunkerque, 75010 | 01 42 85 05 15 | www.terminusnord.com

Cuisine

MODERN EURO

Two friends from the Verre Volé, chef Takao Inazawa and sommelier Benoît Simon, have transformed this old deli into their cuisine. In a dapper retro decor, heralded by the 60's marble facade, the duo delivers an invigorating daily menu, combining local terroir and Japanese inspirations; perhaps veal tataki, mackerel ceviche or whole fried red mullet.

50 rue Condorcet, 75009 | 01 44 63 75 64 | restaurantcuisine.fr

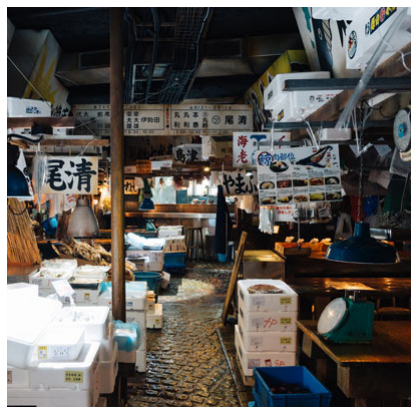

Shabour

ISRAELI

The latest in the suite of headlining restaurants from star Jerusalem chef Assaf Granit. Chef Dan Yosha from his other Parisian venture Balagan heads up proceedings from a frenetic open kitchen, preparing dishes as unorthodox and inventive as Tahini marinated coppa, or a tea and ginger infused egg parfait.

26 rue Dussoubs, 75002 | Book online | www.restaurantshabour.com

Kodawari Ramen Tsukiji

RAMEN / SEAFOOD

A second table from the city's ramen experts: a homage to the eponymous Tokyo fish market with a jaw-dropping décor and fishy menu; perhaps carpaccio of sea bream, house-made ramen in sardine broth, all with a range of toppings to choose from, from tamago egg to spicy sauce. (But beware, no reservations can mean queues.)

12 rue de Richelieu, 75001 | No reservations | www.kodawari-ramen.com

Maison

MODERN EURO

Prick up your ears! After a residency at the Chef's Club in New York, Sota Atsumi (ex-Vivant and Clown Bar) returns at last to the Parisian food scene with this glorious new spot, housed across both floors of a former wine warehouse, where the Tokyo born chef rejigs French cuisine with audacity and subtlety.

3 rue Saint-Hubert, 75011 | Book online | www.maison-sota.com

Shopping

Gucci Vendôme

The first boutique dedicated to the brand's colourful new high jewelry line has opened within the Place Vendôme's very closed circle. A sober jewel box of dark wood and emerald green satin displays the brilliance of Alessandro Michele's inspired first collection, the Garden of Delights, a mish-mash of references and styles.

16 place Vendôme, 75001 | www.gucci.com

Dover Street Parfums Market

Following the closure last December of Comme des Garçons' discreet and beautiful Paris parfums boutique, its innovative multibrand empire Dover Street Market prepares a first retail incursion here with this exciting new venture dedicated to perfume and beauty. Opening 2 Oct!

11 bis rue Elzévir, 75003 | www.doverstreetparfumsmarket.com

L'Officine Universelle Buly x Louvre

The Parisian beauty brand sets up inside the Louvre. From a small dedicated counter, discover the exclusive collection of scents composed in tribute to 8 of the museum's masterpieces (Ingres' Grande Odalisque, Venus de Milo, the Winged Victory of Samothrace, etc.), available in perfumes, candles and fragrant postcards.

Until 6 Jan | Allée du Grand Louvre, under the Pyramid | www.buly1803.com

Dior Champs-Élysées & Dior Home

Closed for at least 2 years of renovations, Dior's mythic Avenue Montaigne flagship is replaced by a splendid pop-up shop on the Champs-Élysées. Draped with a trompe-l'oeil facade replicating Mr. Dior's private mansion, behind you'll discover 3 fabulous floors dedicated to both the women's and men's collections. More news: the house's first homeware boutique has opened within its Avenue Montaigne stronghold, presenting a selection of textiles and crockery and other precious decorative objects.

127 avenue des Champs-Élysées & 28 avenue Montaigne, 75008 | www.dior.com

What's On

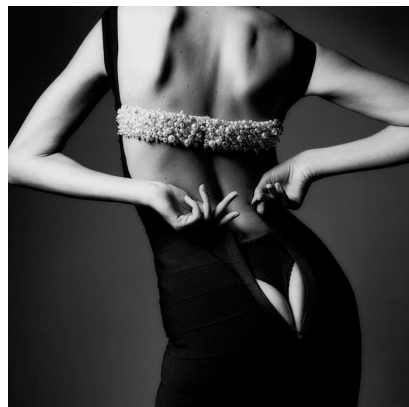

The Tati Collection

ASSOCIATION AZZEDINE ALAÏA

"What excited me was to attach my name with this brand that represented bargain clothing." So it was to a stunned audience that Azzedine Alaïa introduced the SS 1991 collection in which he used the trademark pink & white houndstooth print of the popular department store, where Parisians like to hunt for the best bargains, "les plus bas prix".

Until 5 Jan | 18 rue de la Verrerie, 75004 | associationazzedinealaia.org

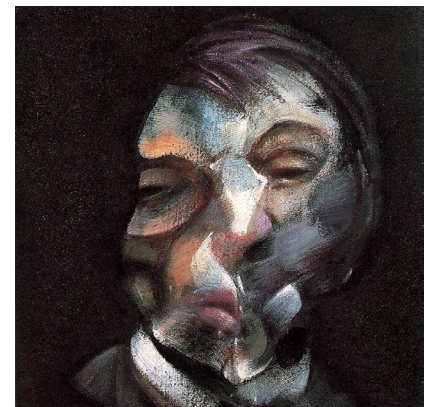

Back Side / Fashion from Behind

MUSÉE BOURDELLE

Closed for renovations (again), the Palais Galliera presents this off-site exhibition that focuses on a part of the body generally ignored yet so inspiring for fashion: the back. Pieces from the 18th century right up to today and sourced from the museum's collections are presented against Antoine Bourdelle's monumental sculptures, providing new resonance.

Until 17 Nov | 18 rue Antoine-Bourdelle, 75015 | www.palaisgalliera.paris.fr

Francis Bacon: Books & Painting

CENTRE POMPIDOU

The Pompidou Centre dedicates a new retrospective to Francis Bacon, proposing a novel interpretation of the last two decades of Bacon's career, from the suicide of his companion George Dyer to his own disappearance, in resonance with readings of the great literary works that nourished his existential reflections and his artistic expression.

Until 20 Jan | Place Georges-Pompidou, 75004 | www.centrepompidou.fr