

Paris Fashion Week Bulletin - Spring 2020

Art & Culture

Harper's Bazaar: First in Fashion

MUSÉE DES ARTS DÉCORATIFS

152 years of fashion history are summed up through the vision of the great artists who contributed to the Bazaar's unique style, from Man Ray and Andy Warhol to Richard Avedon and Peter Lindbergh, and including a tribute to the trio, Carmel Snow, Alexey Brodovitch, and Diana Vreeland, who invented the modern fashion magazine. Until 14 July | 107 rue de Rivoli, 75001 | madparis.fr

'Boldness' in the agnès b. collection

LA FAB.

Fashion designer agnès b. has inaugurated her foundation in Paris with a first exhibition "Boldness" of works culled from her personal art collection, "a big collage that I created with my soul and my heart," from Nan Goldin to Jean-Michel Basquiat or Andy Warhol. You'll also find new works for sale in the Galerie du Jour. Until 23 May | Place Jean-Michel Basquiat, 75013 | la-fab.com

Betty Catroux

MUSÉE YVES SAINT LAURENT PARIS

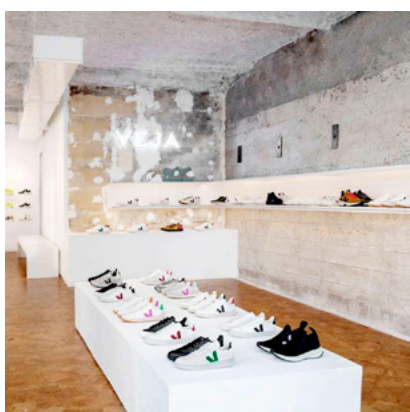

A homage to Yves Saint Laurent's partner in crime and physical ideal - "she's perfect in my clothes" - devised by current artistic director of Saint Laurent, Anthony Vaccarello. Approximately 50 pieces have been selected from Catroux's own wardrobe, which she recently donated to the museum. 3 March - 11 Oct | 5 avenue Marceau, 75116 Paris | museeyslparis.com

Shopping

Ogata

With an exquisite contemporary take on Japanese traditions, Ogata is at once restaurant, bar, boutique, gallery and tea room, spread throughout a magnificent old mansion in the Upper Marais. The founder Shinichiro Ogata explains, "the culture of Japan is indispensable in a world seeking balance between mankind and nature." 16 rue Debelleye 75003 | ogata.com

Veja

Paris's own ecological trainer brand continues to prove there's another way of doing things and its first own-name boutique is designed to reflect company values and process: deconstruct, then rebuild in a more socially and ecologically balanced way. And be sure to check out the Rick Owens collab while you're there! 15 rue de Poitou, 75003 | www.veja-store.com

Hermès Rive Gauche

Hermès's Left Bank boutique is under renovation until November. During the works, leather goods, home and silk collections set up next door, while ready-to-wear and accessories are transferred to a pop-up at 161 Bld Saint-Germain, and Petit H moves in to the "24 Faubourg." 17 rue de Sèvres & 161 bd. Saint-Germain, 75006 | www.hermes.com

Eat & Drink

La Fontaine Gaillon

MODERN EURO

Acquired from Gérard Depardieu by the busy Moma Group (Manko, Laperouse...), this century-old temple to Parisian gastronomy reopens with the iconoclastic Savoyard chef Marc Veyrat at the helm. His menu pays tribute to lakes and mountains: langoustine carpaccio or bouillabaisse of lake and sea fish. And the extensive wine cellar would do Depardieu proud!
1 rue de la Michodière, 75002 | 01 88 33 93 00 | lafontaine.gaillon.com

L'Epi d'Or

CLASSIC FRENCH

One of Les Halles legendary bistros (and neighbour to Pinault's soon-to-open museum, the Bourse de Commerce) has been relaunched by chef Jean-François Piège and his wife Elodie, who stay faithful to the place's special history and spirit with a short menu of simple but tasty French classics – perhaps Croque Madame or Steak Tartare and chips.
25 rue Jean-Jacques Rousseau, 75001 | 01 42 36 38 12 | alepidorparis.com

Moloko Pigalle

COCKTAILS / FUSION

In the heart of grungy Pigalle, this designer spot sees the Miami chef Jose Mendin turning out a menu that would satisfy international highrollers from Dubai to Saint Tropez: Chilli Crab Bao, Butter Crab Roll or Wagyu Ishiyaki... Drinks are equally world class, taking in serious cocktails, or premium bottles, like a Magnum of Dom Pérignon for 1200€.
26 rue Pierre Fontaine, 75009 | 01 42 06 87 24 | www.molokopigalle.com

Le Dôme

COCKTAILS / MODERN EURO

The Le Perchoir rooftop bar freaks have taken over this Marais institution, turning it into an elegant urban jungle, with the same festive cocktail bar spirit we've come to know and love. Sharing plates by chef Marc Gaviard demonstrate exotic influences, perhaps Iberian pork with miso and black pepper. While the house pastry chef takes care of desserts.
53bis rue des Francs Bourgeois, 75004 | 01 42 74 54 17 | www.ledomedumarais.fr

Chambre Noire 2

MODERN EURO / WINE BAR

The ambitions of this much-loved local wine bar just keep growing. At this second address – just around the corner, in the heart of the 11th arrondissement – they stay faithful to their credo of a lo-fi décor, natural wines, a rotating roster of creative pop-up kitchens, and, especially, improvised, open-hearted fun! The cosmopolitan crowd is always up for it.
32 rue des Trois Bornes, 75011 | @chambrenoireparis

EMC HOTLIST: Vegan

Mesa

HoY Paris, 68 rue des Martyrs, 75009 Paris
www.hoyparis.com

Holiday Vegan Diner

192 avenue de Versailles, 75016 Paris
www.holiday-paris.fr

Maisie Café

Galleries Lafayette Champs-Élysées Food Court
www.maisiecafe.com

JahJah by Le Tricycle

11 rue des Petites Écuries, 75010 Paris
@jahjahparis

Cloud Cakes Vegan Coffee Shop

6 rue Mandar, 75002 Paris
www.cloudcakes.fr